MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and every thing that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit, although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or the article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangement, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons renting refreshments booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry or any other important matter which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Plain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever;
PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM,
induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.
It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

THE GREAT ISSUE.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE REBELLION?

RECORD OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Senator WILSON, of Massachusetts, made a great speech last week in Bangor, Maine, at the great Republican Mass Meeting.—The following extracts we commend to the careful perusal of every reader.

REPEAL OF THE MISSOURI COMPROMISE.

Mr. WILSON commenced by reviewing the course of the Democracy since 1853. On the 4th of March of that year it had received from the nerveless hand of its fallen rival, the Whig party, the administration of the National Government. Alike in victory or defeat, he said, the Democratic party had for twenty years bowed to the slave propagandists.

When Congress met in 1853 President Pierce congratulated the nation on "the sense of repose and security," and gave his pledge that this "repose is to receive no shock during my official term." Those words had hardly made the tour of the Republic ere the nation was startled by the faith-breaking demand for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise of 1820. After a fierce struggle of four months the faithless proposition received the approval of the Democratic Congress, the Democratic President, and the Democratic party. But that crowning victory shattered the ranks of political organizations. The Whig party was broken utterly. Hundreds of thousands left the disordered ranks of the Democracy.—Nearly a million and a half of men ranged themselves togther to recover that lost territory—to oppose the further extension of slavery and the longer domination of slave masters.

Although the Democracy came out of the contest of 1866 victorious, its chiefs could not fail to see that it escaped defeat by the timidity of that conservatism which shrank appalled before revolutionary menaces. In that grand uprising, in that doubtful struggle on the prairies of Kansas, the slave-masters saw their waning power. They fired the Southern heart with malignant hate and bitter scorn of Yankee institutions. Resolved, in the words of Calhoun, whose disciples they were, "to force the slavery issue upon the North," they wrung from the Supreme Court the Dred Scott dicta. They bade New Mexico enact a slave code, and also a code for the servitude of white laboring men. They sent Walker to Central America to win territory, "for," in the words of Brown, of Mississippi, "the planting and spreading of slavery," and they sighed for Cuba, which they could not clutch.

THREATS OF DISSOLVING THE UNION.

When the nation was looking forward to the approaching Presidential election of 1860, these Southern Democratic leaders, frenzied with the fanaticism of slavery, came into the XXXVIth Congress haughtily threatening the dismemberment of the Union if the people should choose a Chief Magistrate opposed to slavery extension, protection, and domination. Jefferson Davis, foremost among that unhallowed combination, had spent the summer of 1859 in the North. Returning to Mississippi in the autumn of that year with assurances that Northern Democrats would throttle the Republicans in their tracks," he advised the people of the South to turn their old muskets into Minie rifles, prepare powder, shot, and shell; for if the Republicans should elect the next President, he was "for asserting the independence of Mississippi, for the immediate withdrawal from the Union." Brown, not to be outdone by his rival, "would make a refusal to acquire territory, because it was to be slave territory, a cause of disunion." Clay declared that Alabama, "if she is not recreant to all that State pride, integrity, and duty demand, will never submit to your authority." Toombs called upon Georgia to "listen to no vain babblings, no treacherous jargon about over acts; the enemy is at your door; wait not for him at the hearthstone, but meet him at the door-sill." Iverson would not even submit to the election of John Sherman for Speaker. "In that event," he exclaimed, "I would walk out of this Capitol. I would counsel my constituents instantly to dissolve all political ties with a party and a people who thus trample on our rights." Clingman would wait for no over act, 'no other' 'overt act' can so imperatively demand resistance on our part as the simple election of their candidate." Nearly two millions of men, regardless of the treasonable menaces and revolutionary teachings of the Democratic leaders, thronged to the ballot-box and made Abraham Lincoln President of the United States.

THE TREATS CARRIED OUT.

South Carolina, trained for thirty years in the school of treason, leaped headlong into rebellion; other States quickly followed her example. Then the vaunted Southern Confederacy, the dream of slave perpetualists for a generation, rose on the basis that involuntary servitude was the normal condition of the Black race in America. Coming into Congress, with official oaths on their perjured lips, these architects of ruin plotted conspiracies in Congress, in the Cabinet, in the army, in the navy, everywhere, for the dismemberment of the Union and the death of the nation. While these conspirators were organizing treason, seducing the weak and corrupting the venal, while they were seizing forts, arsenals, arms, and millions of public property, raising batteries for assault or defence, firing upon the old flag, which covered bread for starving soldiers, they were receiving, not the withering, blasting rebukes of insulted patriotism, but aid and comfort from their Northern Democratic associates.

AID AND COMFORT FROM THE DEMOCRACY OF THE NORTH.

The Democratic President, poor, weak old man, made haste to assure the insurrectionary chiefs, that he had arrived at the conclusion "that no power had been delegated to Congress to coerce into submission a State which is attempting to withdraw, or which has entirely withdrawn, from the confederacy." Attorney General Black pronounced against the power of the Government to coerce a seceding State, and maintained that the attempt to do so "would be an expulsion of such State from the Union," and would absolve all the States "from their Federal obligations," and the people from contributing "their money or their blood to carry on a contest like that."

Jefferson Davis, when he assumed the Presidency of the Confederate Government, and proclaimed that "we have entered upon a career of independence, and it must be inflexibly pursued, through many years of controversy, with our late associates of the Northern States," held the written assurance of ex-President Pierce, who believed that the disruption of the Union would not occur without "blood," that "the fighting will not be along Mason and Dixon's line merely; it will be within our own borders, in our own streets."

Pendleton declared, in the House of Representatives, in the presence of his Democratic associates, that "armies, money, blood cannot maintain this Union," "the whole scheme of coercion is impracticable," "it is contrary to the genius and the spirit of the Constitution." He, who had never a word of cheer for the loyal, assured the retiring conspirators that "if they must leave the family mansion, I would bid them fare well so tenderly, that they would be forever touched by the recollection." Vallandigham proclaimed that "if any one of the States should secede, I never would, as a Representative in Congress, vote one dollar whereby one drop of American blood should be shed in civil war." Referring to that early pledge of faithlessness to his country, after armed treason had opened its batteries upon the steamer bearing food to the famishing defenders of beleaguered Sumpter, he defiantly said, "I deliberately repeat and reaffirm it, resolved, though I stand alone, though all others yield and fall away, to make it good to the last moment of my official life."

WHAT SEYMOUR SAID.

In that time of peril, when the Government rocked beneath the blows rained upon it by Democratic traitors, there came from Democratic orators, Democratic presses, and Democratic convocations, all over the North, bitter reproaches to loyalty, and words of cheer to disloyalty. From the capital of the Empire State, from that great Democratic convention at Tweddle Hall, Horatio Seymour sent forth these words, to burden the patriotic men who were maintaining the just power of the Government, and to cheer on its deadliest foes: "Let us see if successful coercion by the North is less revolutionary than successful secession by the South." Did not these utterances of such exponents of Northern Democracy linger in the memory of Governor Orr, when he said to the men of South Carolina:—"Many of you will remember that, when the war first commenced, great hopes and expectations were held out by our friends in the North and West that there would be no war, and that, if it commenced, it would be north of Mason and Dixon's line, and that it would not be in the South?"

When Southern Senators were announcing that the slave States were intending to go out of the Union, that a "Southern Confederacy will be formed, and it will be the most successful government in the world," timid conservatism demanded a compromise, by which the nation, by irrepealable constitutional amendments, was to recognize, establish, and protect slavery in the Territories then held, or which might thereafter be acquired south of 36 deg. 30 min.; to deny power to Congress to abolish slavery in the nation's capital; to allow slave-masters and flesh-jobbers to take slaves in and through the free States; to take from men of African descent citizenship and suffrage, and to send out of the country, at the expense of the Treasury of the United States, such free negroes as the States might desire to have removed.

THE REPUBLICANS POWERLESS.

Day by day, during that terrible winter, the Republicans in Congress, powerless to save, saw with the profoundest sorrow their riven and snattered country sinking into the fathomless abyss of disunion. A Democratic President, a Democratic Attorney General, had surrendered the life-preserving powers of the Government. A Democratic Secretary of the Treasury was deranging the finances and sinking the national credit. A Democratic Secretary of War was scattering the army, and sending muskets, cannon, and the munitions of war to be clutched by rising trators. A Democratic Secretary of the Interior was permitting the robbery of trust funds held by the Government. A Democratic Secretary of the Navy was rendering that "right arm" of the national service powerless. A Democratic Mayor of the commercial capital of the country was proposing to make that capital a free city, independent of the National Government. Democratic leaders were ostentatiously giving pledges "never to vote a man or a dollar" for coercion.—Democrats were giving their assurances that regiments marching to the coercion of the South, "must pass over their dead bodies." Sam Houston had not called together the Legislature to hasten Texas out of the Union. Iverson said, that if he did not yield to the sentiment of the people, "some Texan Brutus may arise to rid his country of this old, hoary-headed traitor." The unarmed "Star of the West," bearing food to the defenders of Sumpter, was turned back by the frowning batteries of treason. Wigfall tauntingly told us that she had swaggered into Charleston harbor, had received a stunning blow on the fore-head, and staggered out helpless, and we dare not resent it.

THE POPULAR UPRISING.

Soon the men to whom the Government had been entrusted were summoned to its defence. Mr. Lincoln, in assuming the administration, had proclaimed to his dissatisfied countrymen of the South that "the momentous issues of civil war were in their hands." Fearing that the already aroused passions of the South might not completely sever the bonds of affection, the rebel Secretary of War ordered the batteries menacing Sumpter to open their fires upon that devoted fortress. That order was swiftly obeyed. The flag of united America came down, and the Confederate flag waved over its smoking ruins. Thus was inaugurated, by Southern Democrats, that great civil war in which 350,000 loyal lives were sacrificed, 400,000 were wounded, $4,000,000,000 were expended, and the productive industries of the country burdened with an enormous debt.

The uprising of the people, startled by the echoes of the cannon which treason trained on Sumpter, had silenced the rebel-sympathizing Democracy. Little was now heard against "coercion;" but Breckenridge, who yet lingered in the Senate, and Powell, Pendleton, Cox, Vallandigham, and their Democratic associates, protested against "the subjugation of the South." The Administration raised and sent into the field more than two million men, created the most powerful navy that ever rode the ocean, fought six hundred actions upon land and sea, "coerced" rebel States, "subjugated" the South, destroyed or captured the rebel armies, and utterly annihilated the power of the Confederate government.

In this grand work, applauded by earth and blest of heaven, the Democratic party had no part whatever. After civil war had reddened the bright waters and green fields with the blood of our slain sons—after it had sent wounds, sickness, and sorrows into the homes of the people—the Democratic party persistently continued to resist every measure for the nation's defence, if that measure tended in the slightest degree to weaken the admitted cause of all our woe.

THE ISSUE IN 1864.

In 1864 when Grant was holding Lee in his grasp in the rebel capital, and Sherman was fighting his bloody way to Atlanta, when patriot hearts were cheered by the hope of soon subjugating the rebellion, the Democratic party assembled at Chicago.—Horatio Seymour presided. The convention, inspired by slavery, and in sympathy with their rebel Democratic friends in rebellion, resolved that the "war is a failure," and demanded "the cessation of hostilities." The Republican party met in convention, declared for the complete abolition of slavery, the subjugation of the rebellion, and the re-election of Abraham Lincoln. The Democracy, boastful as is its wont, received 21 out of 234 electoral votes, and was beaten by a popular majority of more than 400,000 votes.

THE ISSUE IN 1868.

In November there is to be another struggle between these two parties for the control of the National Administration. The Republican party met at Chicago, reaffirmed its policy of reconstruction, pronounced against all forms of repudation, for the reduction and equalization of taxation, for the equal protection of American citizens, for the recognized obligations to our soldiers and to the widows and orphans of the gallant dead, and for the removal of restrictions imposed upon rebels as rapidly as the safety of the loyal people will admit.—The convention then presented the name of General Grant, the great captain, who has so often marshalled our armies to victory; and Schuyler Colfax, a statesman of pure life, stainless honor, and commanding influence.

The Democratic party assembled in national convention in New York. Horatio Seymour again presided. That selection of its presiding officer was a monition to the country that this convention would be no more patriotic or wise than was the Democratic Convention of 1864. There assembled the self-same leaders, or their compeers, that pronounced, in 1864, the war, to preserve the nation's life, "a failure," and demanded "a cessation of hostilities," which would have made inevitable a dismemberment of the Republic and the death of the nation. To that convention came also a few disappointed, sour, and fallen spirits, who once were enlisted with the legions of Liberty, but who were never imbued with the generous and ennobling impulses of Human Equality. There came, too, the exponents and representatives of the "lost cause."

THE RULING SPIRITS OF THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

There was Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, who, on his way to the convention, said to the students of General Lee's college, "the cause, for which Stonewall Jackson fell, cannot be in vain, but in some form will yet triumph." There was Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, who told rebel troops, during the war, to "pile hell so full of Yankees that their feet will stick out of the windows." There was Buckner, of Kentucky, who came to Washington at the opening of the war, to procure arms for his State and a commission for himself; but who went back to Kentucky, betrayed his State and country, joined the rebel ranks and was afterwards forced to surrender "unconditionally" to Gen. Grant.—There was Preston, also of Kentucky, who abandoned his State, became a rebel general—a commissioner and conspirator in Europe—against his country. There was Basil Duke, one of John Morgan's lieutenants, in his thieving, robbing and murderous raids through Ohio and Indiana. There was Robert Ould, of Virginia, a rebel general and commissioner, and familliar with the horrors of Belle Isle and Libby Prison. [illegible] concerning whose fiendish conduct a Congressional committee thus report, "Of men, from three hundred to four hundred are known to have been killed at Fort Pillow, of whom at least THREE HUNDRED were murdered in cold blood after the post was in possession of the rebels, and our men had thrown down their arms and ceased to offer resistance." Of one hundred and eighty-two members of the convention from the rebel States, there was not one Union man of well known and approved loyalty. There were more rebel soldiers than soldiers of the Union army—more members of Jeff. Davis' Congress than of the Congress of the United States. Is there any wonder then, that one who had heard the rebel battle yell in the land of the rebellion should have instinctively exclaimed, "the rebel yell," as he heard the shout that arose at the words of Wade Hampton's resolution declaring the reconstruction acts "revolutionary, unconstitutional, and void?"

WHY THE REBELS SUPPORT SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.

Henry A. Wise proclaims that "secession is more alive than ever," and he supports Seymour and Blair because they will "assume military power" for the overthrow of the reconstructed governments of the South. Vance boasted to the people of Richmond, on his home from the New York convention, that "the South would gain by the election of Seymour and Blair all it fought for in the Rebellion." Admiral Semmes, who commanded the Alabama when the Kearsage, in the face of Europe, sent her to the bottom of the seas, and who revenged himself by destroying unarmed Yankee whalers after the rebellion had been subdued, said, in a ratification speech at Mobile: "I have been a Democrat all my life, before the war, during the war, and since the war, and fought the war on the principles of the Democracy * * * The grand old Ddmocratic party has risen from its long slumber—and the election of Seymour and Blair will reduce the negro to a subordinate position as an inferior race." Percy Walker told the same Mobile assemblage that this is the first time, since Lee tendered to the enemy that sword which "flashed victoriously over so many battle-fields, that I have seen a light on the clouds hanging over the South;" for "the great Democratic party has taken up our cause." Robert Toombs, who went into the Rebellion for the right to call the roll of his slaves on Bunker Hill, and came out of the Rebellion without the right to call that roll on his own plantation, vauntingly proclaimed to the Democracy of Georgia, in mass convention at Atlanta, that, "as the war late was produced by the defeated Democratic party in 1860, we shall never have peace till it is restored in 1868." He divines the mission of the party, for he tells the delighted Georgians that "the grinning skeletons which have been set up in our midst as legislators shall be ousted by Frank Blair, whom the Democratic party has expressly appointed for that purpose. All these things shall be swept from the bosom of the country." Howell Cobb, denouncing Governor Brown, the loyal white men of Georgia, and repentant rebels and loyal men, who are honestly striving to secure peace, order and law, as traitors to the country, thus characterizes and counsels concerning them: "You owe it to the living, you owe it to your own children and to their children. Write down in their memories this day, and all days, and for all time to come, the feeling and spirit of abhorrence with which you regard and estimate these men. O, Heaven! for some blistering words that I may write infamy upon the forehead of these men; that they may travel through earth despised of all men, and rejected of heaven, scorned by the devil himself. They may seek their final congenial resting-place under the mudsills of that ancient institution." This reconstructed Democrat is the same Howell Cobb, of whom Andrew Johnson said: "Cobb remained in the Cabinet until the treasury was bankrupt, and the national credit disgraced at home and abroad, and then he conscientiously seceded."

Wade Hampton called on his Democratic associates in New York to "register an oath" that they would place Seymour and Blair in the White House, if they received the majority of the white votes, "in spite of all the bayonets that can be brought against them." This rebel trooper and Democratic leader tells the people of the South "not to employ any one, white or black, who gives aid to the Republican party."

THE DUTY OF PATRIOTS.

Mr. Wilson concluded as follows:—"Consider well, I pray you, the histories, the platforms, and candidates of these parties now asking your suffrages. Remember that by its fruit the tree is known, and by his deeds man is judged. Apply to those political organizations those words of Holy Writ. Test them by the high standards of love of country and love of man, and vote as they prompt and approve. So voting, you shall do something to heal the wounds of war, rebuke and repress lawlessness and violence, develop the material and moral forces of the land, secure equality of rights and privileges, and thus lift our country to its predestined rank among the nations."

ABOLITION OF THE NATIONAL BANKS.

Among the cherished plans of the Democratic party is one that has not yet made its appearance in any regular platform resolution, but which is avowed, nevertheless, by no less a man than ex-Senator Pugh, of Ohio, the friend of Pendleton. At a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting held in Cincinnati last week, Pugh said that "the Democratic party demanded that the national banks be abolished." It is to be here remarked that he did not put this forth as his personal view. He said that the party demanded it, and he was undoubtedly right. The party is altogether opposed to the banking system now established. The party in Congress voted against the passage of the law. It has consistently, ever since, voted for every proposition to restrain the privileges of the banks, to supersede their currency, to impose constant additional new burdens upon them, and to attempt to render then odious in the eyes of the public by incessant attacks upon them. When the act to enable the Pennsylvania State banks to organize under the national system was pending in the Legislature, every Democrat voted against it. In New York the Democratic opposition to the change was so great that the banks came in very slowly and reluctantly, and the party organs continually inculcated the idea that they were doing it under compulsion from the national government.

Mr. Pugh was therefore perfectly right in saying that his party demanded the abolition of the national banking system. Such is and has been its purpose all along, and although it has not had the courage to put it into the national platform, it is none the less a regular tenet of the party. This system took the place of a localized banking system, in which in most of the States there was really no security whatever for the outstanding currency and no limit to it. Banks issued as much as they chose, and gave no guarantee of ever redeeming it.—In some other States there was a stock security system, which did give the note holders something to rely upon, although the guarantee varied in value with the credit of the State. The paper currency of a large majority of the State banks was unsecured.—The national system was modelled after the best of the State security plans, but afforded additional safe-guards.

Prior to its adoption, our currency was almost entirely localized, liable to a discount everywhere except just at home, and a source of universal trouble and loss. All this has been changed by the adoption of a system that renders the paper currency national and uniform throughout the country. In proposing to abolish this the Democratic party obviously means to return to the intolerable localized State bank currency. The people, who have tried both plans, may make their choice between them. By the national system, no note-holder can possibly lose anything by the failure of a bank. By the old system, the note-holder was generally left without hope in such a case. By the national system, the amount of the currency is fixed and publicly known. By the old system it had no limits whatever.—Phila. North American.

The Republican Policy is to correct whatever evils may exist in the Banking System, and make it tributary to the business interests of the country. Its violent overthrow would result in a paralysis of business, and great injury to the industry of the country.—But the Southern Rebels care nothing for this. These National Banks are in the hated North. Their destruction will chiefly harm the North, and reduce its labor somewhat to the level of the bankrupted South. So, the Rebels say, "it won't be our funeral, let it go on."

As the Northern Democracy are merely the tender to the Southern locomotive, they obey orders, blindly, even to their own destruction, and that of the section in which they live.

KU-KLUX-KLAN IN KENTUCKY.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives an interesting account of this wicked and murderous Rebel-Copperhead organization;

"This society extends all over the South, and its great object is to put the rebel or Southern wing of the Democracy in power and defeat the reconstruction measures of Congress. There is no doubt about the formidable proportions of this organization in this State, and there is no doubt about the efforts of this organization to raise money to influence the elections wherever Republicans have a show of success. Indiana will feel the potency of this organization in its sending both men and money to that State.

There is also no doubt but that this society will be the moving body in all such schemes as Blair's to upturn the reconstructed Governments. This powerful and desperate body of men mean mischief.—They will use every means within the reach of bold and desperate men to accomplish their designs. At their call an army would spring into existence in Kentucky in a very short time. They are ready to stake a great deal upon success in their present movement. They assert, everywhere, with great confidence that Grant will be defeated, reconstruction overthrown and negro voting abolished.

Let loyal men who love the Union be upon their guard, for they have to deal with quite a different class of people from those that composed the Sons of Liberty of war times. We hope that good citizens, North and West, will take these matters in hand and settle them for all time to come; for, if they do not, the whole power of the South will pass into their hands and be consolidated and used for purposes directly hostile to those results which the loyal people have been endeavoring for near four years to evoke from the happy termination of our civil contest. Liberty, that liberty declared by the Declaration of Independence to be the birth-right of man, is on trial in this Presidential campaign, as it has not been since Lee surrendered. Would that the people could be aroused to the energy necessary to meet this crisis in the affairs of the nation as they met that of the war. Then all would be well."

We may understand now how it happened that Kentucky recently gave 90,000 Copperhead majority.

TWELVE architects in Chicago report that during the present year 289 buildings have been erected in that city, costing nearly $7,000,000.

UNITED States Marshalls are seizing the rolling stock of Southern railroads for debt. Of course the President will restore such property, as it was held by ex-rebels.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETINGS.

The Republican State Committee have announced a series of Mass Meetings, and have engaged a number of first-class Speakers from other States, among whom are Gen. SICKLES, Gen. BRUCE, Judge CULVER, and Prof. LEO MILLER of New York; Gov. HARRIMAN of New Hampshire, Gov. HAWLEY of Connecticut, Senator SHERMAN of Ohio, besides a number of our own Campaigners. From the list of appointments, we observe that County Mass Meetings will be held in York (Soldiers')—Wednesday, Sept. 16.

Lancaster—Friday, Sept. 18.
Chambersburg—Friday, Sept. 25.
Philadelphia, (Soldiers')—October 1 & 2.
York—Tuesday, October 6.
GETTYSBURG—Wednesday, Oct. 7.
Waynesboro'—Thursday, October 8.
Carlisle—Friday, October 9.
Harrisburg—Saturday, October 10.

THE Republican majority in Vermont, last week, is the largest ever given at a State election.

It is curious to note, that gold fell at once. With Grant President and the country at peace, gold would soon fall to a nominal premium, and the country would get back to specie payments without a shock. The New York Convention drove gold up, and the election of SEYMOUR and BLAIR would keep it up.

HON. ALEXANDER RANDALL, late Attorney General of Maryland, and John P. Kennedy, FILLMORE'S Sec'y of the Navy are two of very many "Conservatives" who have recently come out for GRANT. The Republican vote in Maryland this fall will be hardly less than 15,000 over that of last fall. At that rate of progress, affairs will soon brighten in that now dreadfully tyrannized State.

STEPHEN R. MALLORY of Florida, Rebel Secretary of the Navy, who commissioned the pirates SEMMES and HOLLINS, has come out for SEYMOUR.

If those Southerners who were engaged in the plots to burn the city of New York, and introduce pestilence there, should now give in their adhesion to Seymour, the circle of his "friends" would be complete.

FORREST says he is not a member of the Ku-Klux Klan, but is in sympathy with, and will co-operate with it.

It did not require this assurance, to satisfy the country that his heart was with that murderous band.

SECRETARY McCULLOCH has come out for SEYMOUR. Glad of it. His follies can be no longer saddled on the Republicans, by the Copperheads.

"THE CURRENCY FOR ALL."

Copperhead Votes Responsible for our not having it.

The county has been flooded, the last week, with some documents, under the frank of Hon. B. M. Boyer, Copperhead M. C., the burthen of which is that the U. S. bondholder gets the interest on his bond in gold.

We know a good many Copperheads—some of them candidates on the Copperhead County ticket, and others County officers—who probably don't object to this, though their party holds it out as a Republican offense.

We have examined, and found the names of the persons whose votes settled that policy. Let us see who they are.

February 6, 1862, the House of Representatives, at Washington, passed a bill authorizing $150,000,000 of Treasury notes, and making them a "legal tender" for all debts and demands due to the U. S., for all salaries, &c., due from the U. S., and for all debts, public and private, within the United States. This bill passed—yeas 93, nays 59. But six Democrats voted aye, the rest nay. Had the bill become a law in that shape, there would have been but one currency for all.

The bill went to the Senate, where it was amended so as to make these notes a legal tender for all demands due to and from the U. S. "except for interest upon bonds and notes which shall be paid in coin."

February 20, the House voted on concurring in this amendment making interest payable in coin, and it was concurred in, yeas 88, nays 55. But two Democrats voted nay, Joseph Baily of Pennsylvania, and Thomas E. Noell of Missouri, both of whom were War men. Every other Democrat present, voted to concur in the Senate's amendment, and to make the interest payable in coin. (See House Journal, 2d sess. 37th Cong., p. 332.)

The Pennsylvania Democrats who so voted, were Ancona of Berks, Biddle of Philadelphia, Johnson of Northampton, Lehman of Philadelphia, and Wright of Luzerne.

Among the Democrats of other States who voted to make the interest payable in coin, were English of Conn.; Holman, Law and Voorhees, of Indiana; Cox, Noble, Nugen, Pendleton, and Vallandigham of Ohio; and Knapp, and Robinson, of Illinois.

There were 45 affirmative Democratic and 43 Republican votes. There were 55 Republican negative votes. The majority was but 33. Had the Democracy divided or nearly so, the proposition would have been defeated, and the opposite policy adopted. But they went solid, for the gold interest, and it prevailed.

Now, their party is raising a cry about its injustice, after their Congressmen cast the decisive votes, by which it was adopted!!

Could dishonesty further go?

Hold them to this record. Whatever of unfairness, exists, is their fault.—But it is too late now to change it—after the contract has been made.

We have stated the fact that the payment of interest on U. S. bonds in gold was forced upon the country by the votes of Democratic Representatives, of whom there were forty-five. Their names are as follows:

Sydenham E. Ancona, of Pennsylvania.
Charles J. Biddle, of Pennsylvania.
William G. Brown, of West Virginia.
George H. Browne, of Rhode Island.
Charles B. Calvert, of Maryland.
George T. Cobb, of New Jersey.
Samuel S. Cox, of Ohio.
James A. Cravens, of Indiana.
John J. Crittenden, of Kentucky.
George W. Dunlap, of Kentucky.
James E. English, of Connecticut.
Henry Grider, of Kentucky.
Edward Haight, of New York.
William A. Hall, of Missouri.
Aaron Harding, of Kentucky.
William S. Holman, of Indiana.
Philip Johnson, of Pennsylvania.
Anthony L. Knapp, of Illinois.
John Law, of Indiana.
William E. Lehman, of Pennsylvania.
Robert Mallory, of Kentucky.
Henry May, of Maryland.
John W. Menzies, of Kentucky.
Warren P. Noble, of Ohio.
Elijah H. Norton, of Missouri.
Robert H. Nugen, of Ohio.
Moses F. Odell, of New York.
George H. Pendleton, of Ohio.
Nehemiah Perry, of New Jersey
James C. Robinson, of Illinois.
James S. Rollins, of Missouri.
William P. Sheffield, of Rhode Island.
George K. Shiel, of Oregon.
Edward H. Smith, New York.
John B. Steele, of New York.
William G. Steele, of New Jersey.
Clement L. Vallandigham, of Ohio.
Chauncey Vibbard, of New York.
Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana.
Elijah Ward, of New York.
Edwin H. Webster, of Maryland.
Kellian V. Whaley, of West Virginia.
Charles A. Wickliffe, of Kentucky.
George C. Woodruff, of Connecticut.
Hendrick B. Wright, of Pennsylvania.

This vote was upon concurring in a Senate amendment to the "Legal Tender" Act, by which "greenbacks" were not to be a tender for interest on U. S. bonds, which, it was provided, should be paid in gold. The issue was direct, upon this single question. The Republican vote was divided—43 being in favor and 55 against. THE FORTY-FIVE DEMOCRATS VOTED FOR IT, AND CARRIED IT. Had they divided equally, the measure would have been defeated, and all these years there would have been but "one currency for all."

Among the Republicans who voted against this amendment of the Senate, and in favor of making "greenbacks" a "legal tender for all purposes," were Babbitt, S. S. Blair, Campbell, Davis, Hale, Hickman, Killinger, M'Pherson, Moorhead, Stevens, Verree, and Wallace of Pennsylvania; Bingham, Blake, Harrison, and Worcester, of Ohio; Alley, Dawes, Fenton, Hooper, Spaulding, of New York and New England; and Julian, Maynard, Shanks, Sloan, Trowbridge, White, and James F. Wilson of the Western States.

If any evils have followed this establishment of the existing coin interest, the responsibility belongs to those forty-five Democrats, whose solid vote settled the question, aiding therein a minority of the Republicans.

This record is to be found in the Journal of House of Representatives, 2d sess. 37th Cong., 332; or Congressional Globe, 2d sess. 37th Cong. Part 1, p. 900; or McPherson's Political History of the Rebellion, p. 358.

Let Democrats study it, and blush for the dishonesty of leaders who now repudiate a policy which their votes forced upon the country.

THE editor of the Somerset Whig is after Judge KIMMELL with a sharp stick. He says:

> "Judge K.'s cuticle has scarce healed over, after the flogging we were forced to give him in the abortive effort to elect him judge, and now his scarred back is again presented for flagellation. Is there no copperhead statute prohibiting cruelty to animals?"

IN 1864, in Vermont, the Republican majority at the State (September) election was 22,000. This year, it is 27,000. In November, 1864, it was 29,000. In November, 1868, it will be 35,000.

How do you like it?

WHO is fool enough to suppose that SEYMOUR would live a year, if he was elected President, when a second Southern Booth could make a worse than JOHNSON President?

"UNIVERSAL TAXATION," AGAIN.

The New York Citizen, a SEYMOUR paper, in its issue of August 29th last, in a leading, double-leaded, article, comes out for a DIRECT tax on property, to be levied over the entire Union.—It argues, and insists, that this is the best system. It points out a practicable plan. It says:

> "In every county, town, and village, lists of property, real and personal, are already made out, for local taxation; THESE the Government can use without adding one to its force of office-holders, without a dollar of expense for their preparation."

So that it is here clearly declared that this proposed tax is to be levied—

1st. On real property.

2d. On personal property. And

3d. Everything reached by local taxation, is to be taxed by the general government.

This is not yet quite up to the standard of the Copperhead National Platform, which says that EVERY species of property is to be taxed by the United States; but the Citizen is rapidly advancing in that direction.

THE WORK OF ORGANIZATION.

Let our friends remember to do these things:

1. Form a Grant Club at once in every township, with an independent working organization in each election district.
2. Get the name of every Grant and Colfax voter in that district, and have him a member of the Club, if possible.
3. Next record the name of every voter in said district, with every one entitled to become or be made a voter before November 3d.
4. See that every one who will read Republican papers is provided with at least one good one.
5. Make arrangements that will render the polling of an illegal vote in that district morally impossible.
6. Take care that—no matter what may be the weather—every Grant voter in that district shall be at the poll before noon of election day, and shall vote as early as may be.
7. Look out for the undecided or wavering that they vote with us, so far as may be.

Friends! such is the meaning of work. Are you already about it?

THE final contest in the Copperhead Congressional Conference was between KIMMELL, and MEYERS of the Bedford Gazette. Mr. McCLEAN was withdrawn on the thirty-fifth ballot. On the final vote (46th), KIMMELL received three votes from Franklin, three from Fulton, and two from Somerset.

MEYERS got Adams, Bedford and one from Somerset. Imagine COFFROTH'S disgust that Somerset gave the casting vote to KIMMELL! We observe that KIMMELL, MEYERS, and McCLEAN made speeches after the nomination. Some resolutions were adopted, and the Conference adjourned. One of the resolutions, as printed in the Fulton Democrat, informs us that KIMMELL is running for the 51st Congress, which will not meet till March 4, 1889! We submit, that the judge, if elected, can hardly afford to wait till that time to take his seat.

OF THE REPUBLICAN anti-Impeachment Senators, FESSENDEN has taken the stump for GRANT. TRUMBULL, HENDERSON, and FOWLER will in a few days. The last named, of Tennessee, proposes to stump that State, and declares his conviction that the success of the Democratic Party would be the resuscitation of the Rebellion.

Ex-Collector WILLIAM B. THOMAS, of Philadelphia, recently claimed for SEYMOUR, last week made a speech for GRANT. He would probably have supported CHASE or other moderate man on a conservative platform, but he has no sympathy with SEYMOUR and BLAIR, and Revolution. He was in the army, and is not anxious for more fighting. The "Carpet-knights" are generally found to be the most ferocious.

"If greenbacks are good enough for the soldier, the laborer, the farmer, the miller, the butcher and the shopkeeper, are they not good enough for the bond-holder?—Copperhead paper.

If the Copperhead members of Congress had voted that way, in 1862 when this law was passed, "greenbacks" would have been made a "legal tender" for everything. But they then thought it a dreadful thing to offer an "illegitimate and unconstitutional currency" in payment of interest on the bonded debt of the country; and those forty-five Copperheads whose votes adopted the feature that interest should be paid in gold, are responsible for whatever inequality now exists, of which their friends complain.

See the whole record on this subject in another column.

WILLIAM L. SHARKEY, of Mississippi, in a recent speech printed in the New York World, endorses the Copperhead Platform, as follows:

> "On this platform we of the South can stand; it will restore us to our rights, to our position of 1865, and blots out all that has been done under the arbitrary and unwarranted demands of Congress."

This "right" is the right of the Rebels to rule, to practically restore slavery, and to exile all the men who were true to the Union during the Rebellion.

Thus, the issue is squarely made up. Shall the devoted Unionists of the South be left unprotected and at the mercy of vindictive, murderous Rebels?

JUDGE KIMMELL was nominated for Congress on the forty-sixth ballot, and C. M. Duncan for Senator on the twenty-second ballot.

The Franklin county Democrats had the last candidate for Congress and the last candidate for Senator, and have the present candidate for each.

Bedford, Fulton and Adams are expected to furnish the majorities, and Franklin the candidates!

This is a good arrangement for Franklin, and not to complained of by us while the Democratic brethren consent to be thus snubbed.

THEY have a Registry law in Missouri, and certain Rebels are excluded by law from the privilege of registering. These officers are now making up lists. The St. Louis Times (Cop.) calls on the Rebel element to demand registration, and advises them to "settle personally with registers, where they refuse."

The meaning of this is, Shoot the sworn officers of the law if they don't execute it to suit you. This is the spirit of Southern Rebels, everywhere.

COFFROTH "had no show" in the Copperhead Conference. His party can't forgive the vote for that constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. ALEXANDER is "at the end of his rope," for the present.

WILLIAM J. BAER, Esq., of Somerset, is the Copperhead candidate for Judge in that Judicial District, and Col. D. WATSON ROWE, the Republican. There ought to be no difficulty in electing the latter.

COPPERHEADS who four years ago supported McCLELLAN are now shocked, or pretend to be, at the idea of electing a soldier to the Presidency. Do they admit that McCLELLAN was not a soldier; or have their views changed?

THE XIVTH AMENDMENT.

Ex-Senator PUGH of Ohio, has recently made a speech, printed by the New York World, in which he denounces the XIVth Amendment as "a fraudulent Amendment to the constitution that never was adopted." He says further:

> "I would not give them a three-cent postage stamp for their fourteenth amendment. It is not part of the Constitution, and it never will be. It is a base fraud, and I say, as Frank Blair said, these carpet-bag governments must be overthown."

This Amendment has been declared ratified by the Secretary of State, in accordance with the law. The Chief Justice of the United States has recently recognized it as a part of the Constitution. But not a single Democrat, anywhere, has conceded its adoption. On the contrary, their platform pronounces all the Reconstruction measures, of which the Amendment is one, as usurpations, revolutionary, and void.

Suppose SEYMOUR and BLAIR elected, and the XIVth Amendment overthrown, what would be the effects?

First—The Equality of rights of every citizen before the law would not be secured.

Second—Equality of representation would not be secured. And the Southern States would be represented on the whole of their colored population instead of three-fifths, as formerly, though it were all disfranchised. Consequently, thirty members of Congress would be chosen in the Rebel States by virtue of their late slave population, being twelve more than they ever had before. The North would then lose twelve Representatives, and the South would gain them, as a result of Emancipation!—And one white Rebel voter, voting for himself and his proportion of the colored population, would have an average of one-half more political power in the Nation than a white voter in the North!

Third—Every Rebel would be eligible to office, no matter what his crimes.

Fourth—Compensation for slaves emancipated, would be demanded.

Fifth—The Union debt would be open to repudiation. And Sixth—The Rebel debt would be open to adoption, in whole or part.

All these questions are closed forever by the XIVth Amendment. That is the reason the Copperheads oppose it so violently. If you think, they should be closed, vote against the party whose policy is to re-open all these agitations, and create all these risks.

HORATIO SEYMOUR in his speech last March in New York, alleged that it was a mistake to suppose that our Government bonds are mostly held by capitalists—showed that the bulk of them belonged to business men, the active and the laboring members of society, and declared that the "destruction of these securities would make a wide-spread ruin and distress which would reach into every workshop and every district, however humble."

In his speech in June last, a few days before his nomination, he said:

> "All the funds of savings banks and life insurance companies are not put in Government bonds, but they hold an amount which would cripple or ruin them if the bonds were paid, or if they are paid in debased paper. If we add the trusts of widows and orphans we find that 2,500,000 persons are interested in Government bonds who are not capitalists, and who are compulsory owners at present prices under the operations of our laws."

Now he accepts a nomination on a Platform which proposes to do what he then denounced as ruinous to the people, to widows and orphans, and to society at large!

MAINE will vote on the 14th. The Republican majority last year was 11,701. [illegible] 15,000; but Senator FESSENDEN and others predict it will be 20,000. We can tell next week. The State has been well canvassed. The depression in the ship-building and lumber interests there, is great, and we see the Copperheads have been trying to turn that to their advantage.

The N. Y. World of 7th inst., predicts that the Republican majority will be reduced to "some five thousand."

We shall see.

THE Democracy don't agree well on the currency question. The Massachusetts Democratic resolutions declare for "one currency for all" (following the National Platform); but they explain it by saying that "gold and silver coin is the only constitutional legal tender"; and they demand "that it be restored to the people at the earliest moment consistent with the interests of the business and labor of the country."

That's exactly what the Republicans are trying to do, and what Copperheads like PENDLETON and SEYMOUR are doing all in their power to prevent.

THE victims of Rebel cruelty at Andersonville and Belle Isle want to know how their old keepers are going to vote in the coming election. They remember hearing, from their stockades and prison-pens, the humane and benevolent men who stood guard over them rend the air with cheers at the election of SEYMOUR as Governor of New York in 1862; and they are curious to know if these men are as loud in his praise now as then, and whether, now that they have the opportunity, they will vote for him for President.

IT having been alleged by Democratic papers, that George Schnure, Esq., President of the First National Bank of Selinsgrove, and Judge Middleswarth, of Snyder county, had joined the Democratic party, the Freeburg Courier, of Snyder county, emphatically denies the truth of the allegation. So, with nearly all the "yarns" about converts to SEYMOUR.

THE Boston Post predicted the day of the Vermont election, that the Democracy would make "handsome gains," and added that the "RESULT IN VERMONT WILL ESTABLISH THE FACT OF THE TENDENCY EVERYWHERE ELSE."

As the "gains" were for the Republicans, the tendency elsewhere, we must believe, is in the same direction.

GEN. JOHN A. DIX, U. S. Minister to France, has come out for GRANT. He is familiar with SEYMOUR'S War record. What it was, may be inferred from DIX'S famous telegram to SEYMOUR in July, 1863: "I have troops enough to take care of the mob, and you too."

READ IT.

On our first page will be found a brief but telling speech by Senator WILSON, which will pay to read carefully. On our fourth page we give another of "Nasby's letters, detailing the conversion of Elder Pennibacker."

DUNCAN was re-nominated for Senator, because he wasn't elected by a majority of the legal voters, the other time. If this principle is to be established, he 'll be the standing candidate, for we intend to beat him this time, also.

AN "EMBARRASSED" COPPERHEAD.

Mr. Follett, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Marietta District, Ohio, in a recent speech at Pomeroy, asserted that the National banks paid no tax to the Government; that the First National Bank of Pomeroy, for instance, did not even pay a road tax, and that the Hon. T. A. Plants would not dare to deny the truth of his statement. At this moment, says the Pomeroy Telegraph, Mr. Plants stepped forward, and went on to say that the Pomeroy bank paid the Government one per cent. a year on the average amount of its circulation; one-half of one per cent. upon the average amount of deposits and a like tax upon the average amount of its capital stock, beyond its investment in Government bonds. In addition to this, he said, each stockholder in the bank paid to the State and county and town, taxes on the full amount of his capital stock, just the same as on all other property, and that the road tax alone paid on the stock of the First National Bank of Pomeroy this year amounted to six hundred dollars. Mr. Follett became very much embarrassed, and finally stammered out that he was obliged to leave the matter, and would let his friend, Colonel McCook, attend to it.

The war on the National Banks is a prominent feature in the campaign of the Western Democracy. Business men should beware how they trust that party with control of the finances.

THE prospect is, that GRANT will carry North Carolina by from 30,000 to 40,000 majority. The Chief-Justice of the State, and Nathaniel Boyden, M. C, have recently come out for him.—To show the spirit of the Southern Democrats, we quote a portion of the remarks of Col. W. J. CLARK, hitherto a "Conservative," who has recently declared for Grant. He said:

> "He intended to support Grant and Colfax, though he had not previously acted with the Republican party for reasons which he could not give to-night. It was slowly and painfully that he arrived at the conclusion to become a Republican. Slowly, because he gave it full consideration. Painfully, because in coming to this conclusion he would be forced to sever ties that were dear to him, and perhaps give pain to those whom he had always loved and honored.—He knew that in the community and throughout the State, there was a class of human hyenas and vultures who were always waiting and ready to fall upon the mangled reputation of any one who dared act upon his own idea of right, and tear it to pieces; but he feared them not, for he had calmly and considerately viewed his course, and had determined to enter upon it. Since his determination had become known, he could not have been treated worse had he become a Turk and donned the turban. But he had not acted rashly—it was because he loved his country better than party that he was found to-day in favor of the election of Grant and Colfax."

"COL." JOSEPH H. NICHOLSON, of Annapolis, who was in Democratic days Executive clerk of the U. S. Senate, made a speech before the SEYMOUR and BLAIR club of Annapolis, recently, from which we quote this pleasant reading:

> "Well, if I am not an unconditional Union man, nor a patriot, nor a loyal man, what am I? I am a Rebel; yes, I accept the Radical definition. There was a time when I could not have proclaimed myself such without encountering bristling bayonets and the dungeon. I am a Rebel! My keenest sympathies have always been, and now are, with the down-trodden Southern people. They went to war in self-defence—in defence of their constitutional rights—their rights of person and of property—of their States Rights. The man who contradicts this affirmance is either blinded by his prejudices, or ignorant of the facts of history.
> What more? I am a Democrat! Yes—from the soles of my feet to the top of my skull, I am a Democrat! a Seymour and Blair Democrat."

He's where he belongs.

THE Rebels have got Robert Ould, Rebel Commissioner of exchange of Prisoners, to write a letter denouncing GRANT'S course on that subject. Before he consented to mix in that controversy, he should have seen that this extract from a letter he wrote glorifying his management of this subject, had been destroyed: "[illegible] made works largely in our favor. We get rid of a set of miserable wretches, and receive some of the best material I ever saw."

A WASHINGTON letter of last week, says:

> "I saw John Surratt last week, drinking soda at a fountain under the Herndon House, where he helped plot his crime.—He lives, unharmed, and, had Booth lived for trial in these slow, civil times, a District of Columbia jury would, perhaps, have acquitted him. Surratt is thin, lank, flippant of speech, and proud of his distinction, spattered as he is with his mother's blood."

A COPPERHEAD editor says GRANT gets his pay, as General, in gold.

No man is fit to be an editor who does not know that all U. S. officials (except its Ministers in foreign countries), are paid in currency, and not in gold.

THE Cops look and feel gloomy since they heard the news from VERMONT.

They have not yet heard the worst. They're bound to go up Salt River, this fall.

GOVERNOR TOD ON SEYMOUR.—Ex-Governor Tod, of Ohio, recently made a speech in favor of General Grant, at Orwell, from which we make the following extract:

Seymour is an intelligent man. I know him well. He was Governor at the same time I was Governor. Mr. Lincoln called for volunteers. I sent him only thirty thousand, while Seymour sent him fifteen thousand. The President went around complimenting Seymour, and saying nothing about what I had done. I took Mr. Lincoln to task for this. I said, "How is it you are complimenting Seymour for his fifteen thousand men, and neglecting to compliment Morton and me?" His answer was perfectly satisfactory. He said, "Why, Tod, I never thanked Mrs. Lincoln for a cup of tea in my life." (Laughter and applause.) The truth was, Morton and I had done nothing more than what was expected of us, while Seymour had. He had never done the like before, and never did afterwards. It was not necessary to keep a major general in Indiana, and Illinois, and Ohio, to correspond with the President, as it was in New York. In those States the Governors acted as the President's correspondents and agents. You will remember that remarkable dispatch of General Dix to Seymour, saying, "I beg to let you know that I have troops enough at my command to take care not only of the rioters, but of you."

DESERTERS' LAW.—The Defender this week calls upon all deserters to prepare to cast their votes for the Democratic candidates. We observe, however, that Hon. F. Jordan, Secretary of the Commonwealth, has addressed a letter to the Sheriff of Huntingdon county, instructing him to include the law in relation to deserters in the publication of the annual election proclamation. He says that the Supreme Court decided the law to be unconstitutional only so far as relates to deserters who have never been tried by Court Martial, but leaves the law in full force as respects such as have been tried. Similar instructions have been sent to the Sheriffs of all the counties in the State.—Norristown Free Press.

WADE HAMPTON is again threatening to bid farewell to his native State, and say "Good night" to his native land. He threatened to leave for foreign parts at the time the Confederacy was subjugated; and now he threatens that, in case of the election of Grant, he will "pack up his household goods and seek a more congenial clime." It would be painful to have Massa Hampton leave us; but it is far more painful to have him always terrifying us by his threats to leave.

GENERAL NEWS.

GENERAL GRANT is sojourning on his farm in Missouri.

GEORGE FRENCH, a colored man, aged 106 years, died in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on Saturday.

PEACHES are arriving in New York from Ohio in great abundance. One firm alone receives five hundred bushels a day.

GEN. McCLELLAN expects to return to America in the steamer Cuba, which sails from Liverpool, September 19th.

THERE will be no election in California until November, as by act of Legislature the State election in Presidential election years is postponed until that month.

Two young girls, sisters, aged twelve and fifteen years, named Mathias, have been burned to death in Riverside, N. J., by the accidental explosion of a fluid lamp.

THE Synod of the Lutheran Church of East Pennsylvania began its session on Wednesday last in Lancaster, Rev. Dr. Valentine of Gettysburg, delivering the opening sermon.

SENATOR Morgan and Representative Schenck are to meet in Washington on the 18th to determine whether Congress shall re-assemble. Senator Wade and Mr. Colfax are also expected to be there. There is considerable pressure from some quarters for a session, but the better opinion is that the members can do more service at home in the Presidential canvass than by any hurried legislation at this time.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

THOMAS SWANN will be the Copperhead candidate for Congress in the Third Maryland district. Hon. Stevenson Archer will be re-nominated in the Harford district.

THE Rev. T. V. Moore, D. D., of Richmond, Va., has been called to become pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Nashville. He is a native of Cumberland county and well known in this region.

HON. John B. Packer of Sunbury, will be the Republican candidate for Congress in the Dauphin district; and C. W. Gilfillan of Venango, in the Crawford district. Mr. G.'s nomination heals a breach which threatened the loss of the district. Hon. D. J. Morrell has been unanimously nominated in the Huntingdon district.

JOHN Weller of Somerset, and Adjutant John H. Longenecker of Bedford, are the Republican candidates in the legislative district of Fulton, Bedford and Somerset.—Mr. Weller is an excellent man and served last winter acceptably. Adjutant Longenecker is a member of the Bedford Bar, and an able and promising lawyer, of high character and position.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

THE Chicago Post says: "General Sol. Meredith, last year inclined to Johnsonism, has come out like a true soldier and taken the stump for Grant."

THE Democratic white voters of Charleston, S. C., have issued an address to the colored voters of that place, three columns long, soliciting their votes.

WILKES'S Spirit reports that no one has accepted the $5,000 bet offered by that paper that Grant will be elected, and now offers to make the odds three to two in Grant's favor.

DON PIATT, of Ohio, was right when he said the Democratic party was like a blind horse in a bark-mill, who goes round and round—round and round—perfectly indifferent whether he grinds tan bark or brimstone, so he gets his oats.

"OUR soldiers run well this year," was the sneering remark made by Seymour after a series of reverses in 1862. On which the Newburg Journal comments: "They will 'run' well this year, too, and are already 'after' his nimble Excellency 'with a sharp stick.'"

AN old soldier who has lost an arm says: "I am waiting to see if the people of this country are going to elect Horatio Seymour, and if they do I will swear that I [illegible] in defence of my country."

SUNSHINE.—A Georgia man sent Mr. Seymour a big watermelon. In his reply he remarked that "every thing looks well for us." The Boston Journal observes: "We have heard of extracting sunshine from cucumbers, but Seymour has accomplished it with a watermelon."

THE other day, says the Lebanon Courier, a number of persons in Lebanon were judging the age of a mule, which was for sale. After examining his teeth he was pronounced to be twenty-two. A witty "son of the sod" standing by exclaimed, "Over age, is he? Then, be jabers, there is another vote for Seymour. His kind all pull in that harness." The witty fellow's opinion was adjudged to be correct and he was invited to take something.

Special Notices.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 594 New York, and 104 South 10th street, Philadelphia, Pa. PRICE—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists every where. [Aug. 7-2m

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, Sept. 11, 1868.

☞MISS McCLELLAN will open her Select School on Monday the 28th instant.

APPOINTED.—SAMUEL SECRIST has been appointed Post Master at Graffenburg.

ELECTED.—Miss McMILLAN having resigned her position as Teacher of School No. 3 in this place, the Board has elected Miss SUSAN MYERS.

CALL ACCEPTED.—Rev. J. A. HOFFHEINS, of Carlisle, has accepted a call from the German Reformed congregation at at Pottsville, Pa.

ANOTHER RACE.—We understand that another Race will be run at Hartzell's lane, on the 17th inst., between Dr. TATE's horse "Cashier" and a Lancaster horse—purse $800.

OMISSION.—In copying the list of subscribers to the old School house, whose demolition we noticed last week, we omitted the name of the late JOHN B. MCPHERSON, Esq.

A CURIOSITY.—Our young friend, J. ALBERTUS DANNER, showed us on Monday a fine young chicken, which is partially webfooted, and stands and walks erect, something like an owl. It was presented to him and will be exhibited at the Fair.

CLUB MEETING.—The "Grant and Colfax Club" was addressed on Friday evening last by S. J. KOONTZ, Esq., of York Springs, and by D. A. BUEHLER, Esq. The Club will meet to-night in the Hall above the "STAR AND SENTINEL" office. Speaking may be expected.

ATTEMPT TO STEAL.—An attempt to steal a horse from WM. PATTERSON, in Cumberland township, was made on the night of the 29th ult., about 12 o'clock.—Hearing some commotion among his horses, in a field close by the house, Mr. PATTERSON arose from his bed and went out, when the would-be thief took to his heels.—Compiler.

☞We have received a lengthy and interesting letter from Bangor, Maine, from our correspondent J. S. G., giving a glowing account of the great Republican Mass Meeting in that city on the 1st inst., but it reached us too late for this week's issue. Our correspondent speaks hopefully of the election on Monday next, and predicts a handsome Republican gain.

HOTEL PROJECT AT THE SPRINGS.—We understand that a movement is on foot to raise $30,000 for the erection of a Hotel on the farm of Mr. HARMON, immediately adjoining his celebrated Katalysine Spring. He proposes to give five acres of land for that purpose. About $15,000 have been obtained already, although no general effort has yet been made.

REMOVAL.—Rev. J. F. WILKEN, late Professor of German in Pennsylvania College left Tuesday last, with his family, for Honesdale, where he will engage in pastoral labor. The good wishes of our community attend him.

REV. DR. VALENTINE moved into the President's House, College, on Tuesday last, Mrs. BAUGHER occupying Dr. V.'s late residence.

ARRIVED.—Mrs. MACLAY, wife of Rev. R. S. MACLAY, superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Missions in China, arrived in New York, on the 7th instant.—She has been in China eighteen years.—She brings with her her six children who will be educated at the Conference Seminary in Pennington, N. Jersey. Rev. Mr. MACLAY, was stationed in Gettysburg, before he undertook the Chinese mission.

HORSE STOLEN.—On Wednesday night last a dark Bay Horse, property of MR. JACOB DEARDORFF, in Franklin township, was stolen from the pasture field. About 3 o'clock Thursday morning, a man with horse was seen passing through Arendtsville towards the mountain by MR. GEORGE LOWER, which, by the tracks as examined next morning, turned out to be DEARDORFF's horse. The horse is about 4 years old, and valued at $300.—The horse was not insured. A reward of $40 is offered for the horse, and $20 for the thief.

MONUMENT.—We regret to learn that one of the statues for the Monument in the Soldiers' National Cemetery, which were being prepared in Italy under the superintendence of MR. RODGERS, the sculptor, was accidentally broken. This necessitates the cutting of a new statue and will delay the completion of the Monument until next spring. The main statue for the top of the Monument, and the other three for the base, are finished and have been shipped from Italy.

We see it stated that there is a movement on foot to erect a bronze equestrian statue of General Reynolds in the National Cemetery at this place.

ORGANIZED.—The "Menallen Building Association" organized at Bendersville on Saturday evening last, Sept. 5th, and is now in successful operation. The following Officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Jonas Rouanzan.
Vice President, Isaac Bender.
Treasurer, Samuel Meals.
Directors, Elisha Penrose, A. T. Wright, H. N. Minnigh, Geo. Bender, Geo. W. Wilson.
Attorney, W. A. Duncan, Esq.

These Associations are springing up all around us, and are a great aid in improving and enlarging our towns and villages.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOW IN NEW YORK—Is the title of a new work, soon to be issued from the press of J. B. BURR & Co., of Hartford, Conn. It is edited by MATTHEW HALE SMITH, a gentleman of acknowledged ability, whose peculiar talent as a descriptive writer will find a rich field in portraying High Life and Low Life as it exists in the empire city. We have before us a few specimen pages, as also the table of contents, which include, besides startling incidents of every day life, graphic sketches of prominent buildings, noted citizens, &c. The work will contain over 700 closely printed octavo pages, printed on good paper, and be illustrated with 12 full page engravings, bound in extra fine English cloth sprinkled edges at $3, or gilt edges $3,50. Sold only by subscription, and Agents are wanted in every County and Town to canvass for it. For full particulars and terms, address the publishers—J. B. BURR & Co., 18 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The period for holding the County Agricultural Fair, the 22d, 23d and 24th of September, is near at hand, and it is desirable that all who intend to put articles on exhibition should be actively at work. Surrounding counties are making active preparation for their Fairs, and there is no reason why the Adams county Fair should not be one of the largest and best. In another column will be found the Premium List, which is liberal and varied. It is to be hoped that not only Farmers and Mechanics will put on exhibition stock, implements, machinery and produce, but that the ladies will see to it that there is a creditable display of Fancy Articles and Household Goods.

Monday, the 21st, will be devoted entirely to the reception of articles for exhibition, and the Managers desire that all articles be sent in on that day promptly, to give time for their proper arrangement and disposition.

Active preparations are going on at the Fair grounds to get every thing in readiness. The stalls and fences are being whitewashed, and the track put in order, and refreshment stands arranged, while the carpenters are busily at work on the new front building.

LOCAL LEGISLATION.—We have received the Pamphlet Laws for 1868, and glean from them the annexed abstract of laws passed last winter having special local interest:

1—An act authorizing the transfer of the National Cemetery to the General Government, on condition that the latter makes provision for its future care and management.

2—An act ratifying and confirming the report of Hamilton Longwell and Alexander Cobean, two of the Commissioners appointed by a previous act to change the location of a portion of the Harrisburg road. The said Commissioners are authorized to open and make the portion of said road located by them as per report filed, one-half the expenses to be paid by the Borough and one-half by the County; [the Commissioners to receive $2.50 each per day. [This has reference to a change in location of that part of the Harrisburg road in the borough limits, where it intersects Carlisle street.]

3—An act authorizing the Court of Quarter Sessions to appoint Auditors to audit the bounty accounts of Hamilton township.

4—An act repealing the Charter of the "Gettysburg Asylum for Invalid Soldiers," because of abuse of its franchises.

5—An act changing the terms of the Courts of Common Pleas in Adams county, which will hereafter be held on the 3rd Mondays of April and August, to continue one week; and on the 4th Mondays of November and January, to continue two weeks.

6—An act providing that in the borough of Littlestown, the office of Notary Public may be held by a Justice of the Peace.

7—An act exempting property of the Adams County Agricultural Society from taxation for State, County, or other purposes.

8—An act in relation to pleading and judgment, voluntary arbitration, and additional return days.

9—An act authorizing the School Directors of Straban township to refund bounty taxes paid by John N. Graff, Peter Decker, Jacob W. Fidler, and Abraham Kunkle, discharged soldiers, and to appropriate the surplus bounty fund to school purposes.

10—An act repealing the provision of the act of April 12, 1867, which excluded drafted men who were entitled to have commutation money refunded to them, in Latimore township, so as to give them the benefit of said act.

11—An act authorizing the School Directors of Butler township to pay Martin Thomas, John Shue, John Mintur, Daniel Walter and Israel Shank, the money expended by them in procuring volunteers, not exceeding $2,000, and to levy a tax for that purpose.

12—An act releasing the "Adams County Soldiers Monument Association" from the payment of an enrolment tax.

13—An act reducing the number of Managers of the Adams County Mutual Insurance Company from 21 to 11.

14—An act authorizing the School Directors of Menallen township to levy sufficient tax to pay the excess paid for bounties to volunteers over and above the amount allowed by existing laws.

15—An act extending the time for the payment of the enrolment tax of the "Adams County Railroad Company," for one year, and naming the following additional Commissioners: John Gardner, John Day, W. W. Wright, Wm. H. Gardner, Geo. L. Shearer, D. McConaughy and Samuel Stough.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.—Pursuant to agreement, the Republican Congressional Conference of this District met at the Hotel of Mr. JOHN MCILVAIN, in Fulton County, on Wednesday the 2d day of September, inst. The delegates were:

Adams—F. B. Picking, Peter Shively, Dr. Robert Horner.
Bedford—Maj. David Washabaugh, J. W. Sams, Esq., Simon Nycum.
Franklin—Capt. Geo. Eyster, William Adams, Jere. Cook.
Fulton—Col. W. W. Kirk, Harry E. Shafer, C. E. Kennedy.

On motion of Mr. Adams, Col. Kirk was chosen President, and on motion of Maj. Washabaugh, Mr. Cook was chosen Sec'y.

Mr. Adams presented the following dispatch which was read and ordered to be put upon the minutes:

SOMERSET, Sept. 1, 1868.
HON. JOHN CESSNA:
Somerset county will concur in the action of the Conference.
WM. H. KOONTZ.

On motion of Dr. HORNER, Hon. JOHN CESSNA of Bedford, was nominated by acclamation as the candidate of the Republican party of the 16th District for Congress.

Capt. EYSTER offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the permanence of the institutions, and the welfare of the people, of the United States, demand the continuance of the Republican party in power, and that the declaration of principles of the organizations, as contained in the National and State platforms recently promulgated, announce the policy that all true patriots should wish to see pursued.

Resolved, That the Congressional Conference having nominated the Hon. JOHN CESSNA of Bedford, as the candidate of the Republicans of the 16th district of Penn., for Congress, proudly presents him to the people as a representative man, in whose principles, ability, and integrity, the most unbounded confidence can be reposed, and claim for him the united support of the Republican party and of all others who would see a wholesome and permanent reconstruction of that portion of our country recently engaged in Rebellion.

On motion of Mr. ADAMS, the Conference adjourned sine die.

W. W. KIRK, Pres't.
JERE. COOK, Sec'y.

THE VERY THING.—Probably in no department of industry has there been more effort at improvement during the last five or ten years, than the Stove line—the aim of manufacturers being to turn out Stoves that will economize fuel, to best advantage, without prejudicing convenience of arrangement and practical use. A Cooking Stove, has been recently brought out by JAMES SPEER, of Phila., which seems to combine all the advantages of the ordinary Cooking Stoves, with improvements which must put it at the head of the list. We saw one in operation a few days since at the Ware-room of Col. C. H. BUEHLER, on Carlisle street, Mr. SPEER himself being present. In general arrangement it is similar to the Noble Cook, Waverly and other approved stoves, but it has a very ingenious yet simple arrangement by which a steady stream of air is introduced into the fire chamber, through a fine sieve of punctured brass, which gives a steady draft and carries the heated air around the oven, securing a uniform and continued heat. This draft can be regulated by slides, and it is claimed that the heat, by means of this simple contrivance, can be kept at a uniform temperature from 3 to 6 hours, without disturbing the coal, requiring no further attention while baking is going on and with less fuel than ordinary stoves.—Besides this, there is an ingenious arrangement under the front plate by which the coal can be sifted and the ashes separated without removing and without dust. Taking it all in all it seems to be the "very thing" for Housekeepers. Col. C. H. BUEHLER is the Agent for this place.

Editors of the "Star and Sentinel."

GENTLEMEN: Permit me through your paper, to acknowledge the receipt of a box of clothing, &c., from Gettysburg for the Sufferers at this place marked to the care of our Mayor, Hon. GEO. ELLICOTT. On behalf of the Ladies of the distributing Committee, I desire to express our earnest thanks to the generous donors for their valued and timely gifts, and the assurance that they will also receive the blessings of many grateful hearts when the goods shall be distributed.

Respectfully,
MRS. MARTIN.

RAILROAD NEWS.—The meeting of citizens in favor of building a branch road from Emmittsburg to the Western Maryland railroad about seven miles from that place, was held in Emmittsburg on Saturday last. The correspondent of the Baltimore American says there was quite a full attendance of gentlemen from the surrounding county and the village, including several of the Professors and others connected with Mount St. Mary's and St. Joseph's, all of whom appeared much interested in the proposed enterprise. The meeting was called to order by appointing Hon. Joseph Byer President, and John Witherow and Joseph Troxel Vice Presidents; Mr. Edward McIntyre acted as Secretary. The engineer's report of a survey recently made was read.—The line is a little over seven miles in length, of easy grade and nearly free from curves. The estimated cost of construction is put at one hundred and twelve thousand dollars. After reading the report, John Wills, Esq., of Baltimore and Capt. Robert Irwin addressed the meeting in explanation of the advantages and importance of the proposed road. Much interest was manifested in the project and a vigorous effort will be made to put it through.

The Frederick Republican says that the corporate authorities of that city on Friday last subscribed $100,000 to the capital stock of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad. It is the intention to push this enterprise with all possible dispatch, and if possible, commence work on the road next spring. The route of a new railroad is now being surveyed from the town of Christiana, in Lancaster county, to York Furnace, on the Susquehanna river, and from thence on to intersect the Northern Central, a short distance south of York. The object is to establish an air-line route from New York and Philadelphia to Washington RAILROAD.—On and after Monday next, September 14th, the passenger train will leave Gettysburg at 7.15 in the morning, and 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

FAIRFIELD.—The School Directors of Hamiltonban township seem to be a live Board, and are arranging to secure graded schools, with suitable building, &c. They have sold the old School-house and lot in Fairfield to Jacob Musselman for $178, have purchased from A. C. Musselman a desirable lot further up town for $300, and have contracted with Joseph Smith for a new two-story building, to be built of brick, 27x35 feet, for $1995—the object being to have a building suitable for graded schools.

John C. Shertzer has sold his house in Fairfield to Jacob Kready for $1.450.00 cash.

William Walter has sold his residence near Fairfield to Daniel Linard for $3000.00—and has bought a lot in same place from Daniel Musselman, on which he will erect a brick dwelling.

George F. Sites, as agent for the Heirs of Jeremiah B. Sites, has sold the Real Estate of said Heirs in Hamiltonban township, to Jacob Musselman for $1181.25 cash.

☞It has always been a difficulty among citizens in insuring their lives, that the Companies in which they insure are limited in responsibility to the laws of a single State. This has rather prevented the spread of Life Insurance, so that it is not as general in this country as it is perhaps in Germany and England. Several of our most distinguished citizens, headed by MR. JAY COOKE, of Philadelphia, have removed this difficulty by chartering a Company under a law of Congress which gives it equal power in every State and governs it by unity of action. This is the NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of the United States of America. The advertisement is printed in another column. Its cash capital is one million dollars. It insures lives upon every plan known to other Companies, and in addition to that it issues a policy which at the end of ten years will pay to the holder an annuity during his life and the full value after death. The common instincts of prudence, the desire of every man to know that those whom he leaves behind may be kept from want, the shrinking from poverty we all have, the constant anxious wish in the mind of every man that his children shall not suffer or be compelled to beg for bread, should lead him to take advantage of the scheme here offered, and to cover his life with a policy of insurance. For the expenditure of four cents a day, he can be assured a thousand dollars when he dies; and on any sum he may choose to take at the same rate. It is well to put money into a savings bank. It is perhaps better to put it into a safe and well-managed business. But banks are robbed, and business may fail, and evil days may come to the most thrifty and far-seeing. A good Insurance Company is beyond any of these dangers; and the duty of prudence—a duty so strong that to neglect it is almost a crime—should compel every man who values his own comfort and the happiness of those around him to take advantage of a scheme like that offered by MR. JAY COOKE and his friends. 1t

THE MORNING GLORY.—Col. C. H. BUEHLER has received a large assortment of these famous base-burning Stoves, which on the score of economy, cleanliness, easy management, and general utility stand unrivalled and defy competition. The great demand for them last season taxed the capacity of the Manufacturers to meet the demand. They are much improved and will doubtless ere long take the place of all other stoves for parlor, office, store and shop. Call and look at them, at the Wareroom on corner of Carlisle and Railroad street, opposite the depot.

Also, on hand a full assortment of the best varieties of COOKING STOVES, including the Spear, Noble Cook, Waverly, Oriental, Washing, Barley Sheaf, Prince Royal, Royal Cook, Excelsior, &c. &c., all WARRANTED to be good bakers. If not satisfactory, they can be returned and the money refunded. Also, a large assortment of Hollow Ware and Tin Ware, Doty's Washing Machine and Universal Wringer. Call and examine. tf

☞No loss can be more fatal to beauty, especially in the female sex, than the loss of the Hair; glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness or even a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion; when not actually seen, we see them in imagination. Why, then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or if your hair is gray or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER or DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. Sept. 4—4t

SELLING OFF.—A fine chance for Bargains is now presented at the store of DUPHORN & HOFFMAN, in this place, who are selling off their large and varied stock of Dry Goods at cost. Their goods are of the latest styles and best quality. Their stock of cloths, cassimeres, tweeds, etc., is extensive. They are going to sell their entire stock, and persons would do well to call early and get the first choice, as the goods are selling rapidly. See advertisement. aug.28.6t

NOW IS THE TIME.—Housekeepers can economize by laying in their winter coal at once, as freights are now lower than they will be a month hence, and Coal will necessarily rise. Persons desiring to save money, will do well to call at once on Col. C. H. BUEHLER, who is prepared to furnish all kinds of Stove, Blacksmith and Lime-burner's Coal at lowest market prices. tf

FOR SALE.—A large Bulk Show Window and a pair of double Doors, suitable for store or business stand. Will be sold low. Apply to A. D. BUEHLER, Gettysburg. 8t

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CARROLL.—The corner-stone of St. Paul's (German) Reformed Church, Westminster, was laid 30th ult., and same day Rev. W. C. Creamer was installed at Krider's church, pastor of the Westminster charge. The new church is on the corner of Green and Bond streets.

CUMBERLAND.—The Eleventh Annual Exhibition will take place at Carlisle, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 14th, 15th and 16th days of October. They have, among attractions, a full third mile Track, in excellent condition; and offer a Premium of one hundred dollars for the best trotter—open to the world. The sum total of the premiums exceeds twenty-five hundred dollars.

FREDERICK.—A new (German) Reformed Church is in course of erection at Adamstown, and a new Methodist Episcopal Church south near Central Chapel in Liberty district.

FRANKLIN.—Snively Strickler, Esq., formerly editor of the Repository, died on the 1st inst., at Greencastle.—William Gearhart, residing near Middleburg, hung himself on the 31st ult.—A Democratic Mass Meeting will be held in Chambersburg on the 30th.—At the Franklin County Fair, there is to be on Thursday, October 8, a premium for the fastest trotting horse, on Friday for the slowest; also for lady equestrianism, and for pedestrianism; also a tournament, same day.—A new Post Office has been established at New Bridge, on the road from Shippensburg to Dry Run, and H. P. Piper has been appointed Postmaster.—There will be a Republican Mass Meeting September 5, in Chambersburg.

WASHINGTON.—Mr. Isaac Dusanger, a carpenter, residing in Funkstown, in this county, met with an accident on Monday last, which resulted fatally. He was engaged at work on a building on the farm of Mr. Joseph Fiery, and stepping upon the end of a log which had been partially sawed, his weight caused the timber to part, precipitating him to the ground some twenty feet. He was killed instantly, was about fifty years of age. He leaves a large and dependent family.

YORK.—John H. Aulabaugh has sold his two-story brick dwelling on Carlisle street, Hanover, to Jacob Wirt for $4,000.—Sam'l L. Bahn sold to John Taylor, 40 acres and 110 perches of land in Hellam twp., without buildings, at $245 per acre—amounting to $9,968.41½.—The following are the officers of the Wrightsville, York and Gettysburg Railroad for the ensuing year: President, J. D. Cameron; Directors, Philip A. Small, Samuel Shock, James Myers, A. J. Frey, J. M. Stevenson, Jr., W. Latimer Small, Henry Kauffelt, H. E. Muhlenberg, M. D., the latter in place of Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, deceased, who was in the management from its organization to his death—first as President, then as Director.—The Columbia Bridge is progressing rapidly.—A Camp Meeting of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, will be held at John Myers' woods, near York, commencing Monday, Sept. 17th, and, continuing, if the weather is favorable, to Thursday, Oct. 1st. The Camp Ground is situated in Springgarden township, on the Wrightsville railroad, about three miles from York by railroad, and two miles by turnpike.—A new street has been opened in York, to be called Maple, to run from Beaver extended on the west to Queen street on the east.—Two deaths last week, in York, from the fever, but no new cases reported. Of 100 cases, but 8 resulted fatally.—Charles Lauman, aged 86 years, died last week. He was born in York, in 1781. The Republican says of him: Measured by the events which have transpired between the date of his birth and that of his death his life was a very long one. Born before the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, he was a well grown boy when Washington our first President was inaugurated. He had arrived at the years of manhood when the first political contest, which terminated in the election of Jefferson as the Third President of the United States, was waged. He had reached the borders of middle age when the last war between this country and Great Britain was declared. He was a man of temperate and correct habits, and until about two years before his death, enjoyed remarkably good health. His reminiscences of the past were very interesting as he spoke of times which seemed ancient to the present generation.—When a young man he tried his fortunes in what was at that time the back woods of the far west. With a horse and wagon he emigrated to the Chillicothe settlement in Ohio, where he remained about two years following the business of a Dyer. He made this journey before turnpikes were known in this country and when western Pennsylvania was a wilderness, with here and there a log cabin along its primitive main road. Pittsburg was then a hamlet of a few scattered houses, and the trade of the Ohio river was conducted on flat boats, steam not having yet asserted its magic power.

THE EARTHQUAKE AT CALLAO.—A letter from Callao gives the following particulars of the earthquake which took place on the 13th ult.:

"For full five minutes the heavy, rolling, rumbling shock continued, rocking the furniture, and even the houses themselves, with such violence that persons could hardly keep their feet, and an instantaneous rush was made for the street. Here the sight beggared description; all the affrighted people, kneeling and praying in the open street, crossing themselves, and falling in deep swoons full length on the pavement; old women kneeling with both arms upraised, screaming and crying; the great bell of Santo Rosa church tolling and tolling, while the terrified people fled in crowds within the sacred enclosure, and the great steeple swayed and cracked as if every moment it would fall upon and crush the affrighted masses. As far as the eye could see down the long, narrow street, the very street itself rose and fell in long billowy undulations, while out on the bay, the ships tossed up and down, under the violence of the tremendous internal jar.

"The night of the 13th was the most fearful night of horrors that Peru has ever known. The sea was rising until midnight, and actually came in fifty feet over the mole, and submerged all the lower floors of the stores and buildings on the streets nearest the water. Ships lying at anchor broke their moorings and drifted into each other. The American man-of-war Powhatan, lying here, was run into by a ship, breaking the iron jib-boom of the Powhatan, and the Powhatan, as well as all the Peruvian men of war lying here, steamed up and went away out to sea. There seemed to be a regular under-current of whirl-pool, so that ships went whirling round and round.—Thousands of people walked the streets all night, and this morning the stores are closed and Callao seems deserted. A feeling of terror prevails that this may be a second St. Thomas affair, and if there should be another earthquake to-day, affairs would look dangerous. Ships are torn and battered, and the sea at the present writing boils and bubbles like a great whirl-pool."

FLAKE'S Galveston Bulletin thus demolishes a carping rebel argument: A North Carolina paper asks, "What is the worth of a reconstruction that can only be upheld by carbine and cannon?" We answer, what is the worth of a civilization that can only be upheld by the halter and the penitentiary? If men or communities commit offences they must be punished.

THE leading Democrats of Ohio say that the nomination of Vallandigham for Congress will cost them ten thousand votes in that State. If he loses the party ten thousand votes in Ohio, he ought to lose them two hundred thousand in the Union. Every movement made by the Democrats since the Fourth of July has been a blunder.

THE SOUTHERN SITUATION. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Your correspondent is in receipt of letters from well known officers of the regular army stationed in South Carolina and Alabama. They confirm all that has been said of the desperate measures which the Southern Democrats are resorting to, to carry their States for Seymour and Blair. They say that the more violent ones are carrying everything before them and driving the moderate men into their views as was done in 1861 and 1862, and that the attempt is almost universal to control the votes of the negroes by threats, partly of violence, but mostly by deprivation of employment. One writer says the condition will daily grow worse for the next few weeks, and the election of Seymour would be the signal for a reign of terror through the entire South.—Correspondence of Phil. Bulletin.

PHILADELPHIA, September 8.—A frightful murder has just come to light here.—On Sunday evening last Mary Martin, aged six years, residing with her parents in the northern part of the city, was sitting in front of the house with her mother, who was accosted by a strange man who asked the direction of a certain street. The mother sent the child to show him, as it was but a few steps off. The child was not heard from until to-day, when her body was found in a brick pond, outraged, an arm dislocated and several cuts on the body. There is no clue to the murderer.

THE Memphis Avalanche declares that the "forbearance" of the rebels in not killing off every Radical correspondent or editor in the South "should create a feeling of admiration among the Northern people."

☞"All Around the World" is the title of an advertisement that typifies the universal demand for "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," which took the highest premium over all competitors, at the N. H. State Fair, in 1866.—Indianapolis Journal.

ST. LOUIS & IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY'S Seven per cent. first Mortgage Bonds, February and August Coupons. The earnings of the completed road to Pilot Knob are now more than the interest on the entire mortgage. The proceeds of these Bonds are adding to the security every day. Over $8,600,000 have been spent on the property, and not over $2,000,000 of bonds issued thus far. The constantly increasing traffic of carrying ore, with the prospect of controlling all the travel from St. Louis to the Southern States, ensures an enormous revenue. The Directors own 8-10 of the stock for investment, and are interested to enrich the property as well as to economize its expenses.
THOS. ALLEN, President, St. Louis, Mo.
We, the undersigned, cordially recommend these seven per cent. mortgage bonds, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, as a good security. AXES,
All Styles and Shapes.
☞GET YOURS FOR NOTHING.☜
Any one who sends us an order for FIVE (5) AXES, at ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF EACH, with the cash, will receive ONE EXTRA, FOR NOTHING.
We will put our Axe alongside of any other make and prove it the best finished and the largest steel, measuring two and a half inches.
We have made Axes for twenty-two years, and won't yield the palm in shape to any manufacturer, and yet confess that a "Sucker of Illinois," called COLBURN, beat us in his patent shape. The circular bit and continuous edge makes the same labor produce twice as much effect.
We call it
COLBURN'S PATENT
RED JACKET
AXE.
Any one who sends us an order for FIVE AXES of this shape, at TWO ($2) DOLLARS EACH, with the cash, will receive ONE EXTRA, FOR NOTHING.
All responsible Hardware Dealers sell the "LIPPINCOTT AXES." Buy from them. But if there should happen to be one so unfortunate as not to know us, send the money and we will be sure to please you.

750 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC
RAILROAD
Are now finished and in operation. Although this road is built with great rapidity, the work is thoroughly done, and is pronounced by the United States Commissioners to be first-class in every respect, before it is accepted, and before any bonds can be issued upon it.
Rapidity and excellence of construction have been secured by a complete division of labor, and by distributing the twenty thousand men employed along the line for long distances at once. It is now probable that the Whole Line to the PACIFIC will be Completed in 1869.
The Company have ample means of which the Government grants the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations; also 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road; also United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built, for which it takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c.
THE EARNINGS OF THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD, from its Way or Local Business only, during the year ending June 30th, 1868, amounted to over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS,
which, after paying all expenses was much more than sufficient to pay the interest upon its Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that
First Mortgage Bonds
upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount,
ARE ENTIRELY SECURE
The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.
A very important consideration in determining the value of these bonds is the length of time they have to run.
It is well known that a long bond always commands a much higher price than a short one. It is safe to assume that during the next thirty years, the rate of interest in the United States will decline as it has done in Europe, and we have a right to expect that such six per cent. securities as these will be held at as high a premium as those of this Government, which, in 1867, were bought in at from 20 to 23 per cent. above par. The export demand alone may produce this result, and as the issue of a private corporation, they are beyond the reach of political action.
The Company believe that their Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest security in the market, and the right to advance the price at any time is reserved. Subscriptions will be received in
FIRST NATIONAL BANK and GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK, and in New York
AT THE COMPANY'S OFFICE, NO., 20 NASSAU ST.,
AND BY
JOHN J. CISCO & SON, BANKERS, No. 59 WALL St.,
And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.
Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.
A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices or to any of the advertised agents.

...der Pennibacker ... which Puts His ...cratic Ground.

[Toledo Blade.]

...EDERI...

...X ROADS,)
...tate uv Kentucky,) Aug. 15, 1868.)

Joy to the world! Elder Pennibacker, which, ever sence the Noo York Convenshun, hes bin a skoffer and a sore head, is wonst more within the fold. There wuz more rejoicin when he come back than over all within the fold, for he wuz a venerable lamb wich hed gone estray. Like the prodigal son we slayed for him the fatted calf.

I wuz particularly pleased with his return. He wuz the kindest uv men, and made the best corn whiskey in this seckshun. He hed allus bin in the habit of sendin, now and then, a jug to his Paster at the Post Offis, but sence his dissatifackshun and consekent estrangement, these delekit attenshuns, so grateful to one in frail helth, hez bin intermitted. But that is all over, thank Hevan. Yesterday morning he come into the offis bearing that which to me is the most blessid uv peace offerins, the old familyer jug, wich settin down, he fell onto my neck and wept.

"Parson!" sed he, his voice quiverin with emoshen, and the tears chasin each other down his nose, "it's over. I've sinned and hev repentid. Forgive me!"

"Elder!" sed I, assoomin a dignified air, "he who departs and cometh back—don't kick over that jug, for the stopper ain't in tite—is to me more precious than if he hedn't kicked over the traces. Bless you, my son. Here's a tin cup wich will do."

The Elder then told me how he hed bin converted. He hed determined not to vote at all. He didn't bleeve in Seymore, coz he is pledged to pay the debt in greenbax, and he detested Blare becoz he wuz wunst a bloo-kotid hirelin, and becoz in marryin him we marry the entire Blare family, wich is too much. He didn't bleeve that either uv em wuz to be trusted. He didn't bleeve that either uv em was troo to the South.—Feelin pekoolyerly bitter, he went to bed the nite afore, and nursin his wrath he fell asleep and dreamed. That dream saved him.

He dreamed that he was in a vast assemblage uv the Democracy, very like the Nashuel Convenshun. There wuz shoutin and hollerin, but he walked about gloomy and sad, filled with the most fearful forebodins.

Presently in his dreem he approacht the grand stand wich wuz okkepied by the leaders and devoted to the moosic uv the occasion. Here a most pekoolyer site met his gaze. He notist one small but sof- ed instrument, holler and ver- flute, evidently made ...-ton- out uv wich ...y much like a and ...for peeceful strains, ... Wade Hampton wuz a strainin ...blowin the most feroshus and war-like sounds. The hed uv the instrument wuz Seymore's hed, and ez he lookt closer he found it assoomed the general appearance ov the man. It tried hard to keep the smooth melojus tones to wich it wuz normelly adapted, but the grim-visaged Hampton, whose wind is inexhaustible, blowd sich strong blasts and fingered the holes so adroitly, that it played his toons and his only.

Just beside him stood Boregard a playin a brass instrument, wich wuz shaped so like Blare ez to be him, wich instrument wuz uv the trombone nacher. Boregard hed no troble with it. It wuz ez discordent nacherelly ez it cood be, and it wuz splendidly adapted to the capassity uv the player.

I give the dreem henceforth in the Elder's own words:

"Whot in thunder," sed I to a man wich seemed to be sort uv engineerin the concert, "wat in thunder is Seymore and Blare and sich ez them furnishin moosic for strate Suthern Dimocracy for? Are we to be compelled to submit to be the tool uv bondholders and Fedrel soljers and sich? Ez for one, I will never—"

"Don't talk like an eggrejis ass!" sed this man. "Hevn't you any sense? Can't you see that Seymore and Blare are merely the instrooments wich are played onto, and that Boregard and Wade Hampton are the individooals who furnish the wind and finger the holes. Listen, how grand!" "Dixie" and the "Bonny Bloo Flag" swell out onto the air and fills surroundid space! And see, ez Boregard shoves out the trombone, how it hez knockt off the stand all them wich from former attachment to the instroomeut wuz close to it, and how sweetly the pizen breth wich is being blowed, tho its combined with that uv the instroomeut itself, hez smothered all them whos presence wood hev embarast us. Miles O'Rielly it killed, and all that pestiferous breed uv War Democrats like him are layin overpowered with it, flat onto their backs.—They may possibly survive, but they are so stoopefied that they won't git up till after their opportoonity for hurtin us is passed.

"Then," sed the Elder, my dreem changed. "Methawt the eleckshun wuz over, and that we hed triumphed. I wuz to home in Kentucky. All here wuz peece.—The Buro officers hed folded their tents like the Arabs, and silently stole away. The military wuz withdrawn, and ther wuz nothin bloo in the South, save and except the faces of the few Northern men wich coodent get away. The very air wuz full uv the gosts uv the ded Federal soljers in the South, all uv wich wore an expreshun uv hoomiliashen ez tho they felt they hed been manufaktered into gosts for very considerable less than nothin. Reconstruckshen hed bin undone, and all laws enfranchisin niggers and deprivin our heroes uv suffrage wuz bustid. We wuz free. Ther hed bin a general cleanin out uv Northern settlers, carpet-baggers and obstreperous niggers. I notist with infinit pleasure that Pollock's store hed bin gutted, and Joe Bigler's corpse (he spoke this in a low tone and looking fearfly over his shoulder to make shoor no one heerd him) wuz lyin on the square.

Sich of the niggers ez cood be controlled were at work under laws we hed passed for em regulatin labor, at an average uv $4 per month, and sich ez hed become too independent for that, hed either bin shot or driven out uv the country. The Amendments, givin uv em votes and sich hed bin overruled, and in Tennessee and the other States they hed bin redoost to their normal speer, and the power wus wunst more in the hands uv sich patriots ez Forrest, and sich.—Brownlow hed bin hung; ther noosepapers destroyed, and them wich supported em scattered to the four winds. In the Corners all wuz peece. We hed niggers on our plantations ez before the war, and we, the ruolin race, was relieved uv the degrading labor wich so onfits a Caucasian for the enjoyment uv life. The entire Corners havin nothin to do and plenty to live on, wuz perpetoually gathered in front of Bascom's, pitchin coppers, runnin quarter races, and ever and anon ceasin their manly amoosements to quaff the flowing boles wich he supplied. We cood hear, any time, the eternal yelp uv bloodhounds in the swamp beyont the Run, chasin runaways, and ez ther wuz no longer any law gin ther shootin ni-gers, skacely a day passed that one or more wuz not killed. My distillery wuz a runnin full blast, the smoke uv the ferment ascendin from its chimney forever. Oh, it was gorgus!

"And is this to be?" askd I uv the disembodied spirit uv Bishop Poke, wich wuz showin it to me.

"All this and more," returned he. "Thus will the South regain her lost rites. Thus will the lost coz be re-tored. Elect Seymore and Blare, and all wil be well."

"At this pint I awoke," sed the Elder, "feeling how unjust I hed bin—how vilely I hed sinned and how fearfully I hed departed. I wuz agoin back on my party on the greenback question? Wat is greenbax to this? Wat is paying a debt in this way or another compared to the exta... pin niggers, chasin N... ...y uv wallo- our instoosh... ...nern men and hevin gre... ...s back again? Wat is a mere ...nback idea compared to the luxury uv hevin the entire Northern Dimocracy in our hands agin, for us to mould ez we will and do with ez we like. Why, I wooden't give the luxury uv hevin a Noo Yorker on his knees afore me ez uv old, a minnit, for all the taxes I will hev to pay for a century.—Besides," and he bustid out afresh, "If Boregard can make Seymore pipe Dixie, can't he also by different fingerin make the same instroment play Repoodiashen? I shood say so. We hev em "Parson—we hev em. Forgive me! forgive me!"

And we embraced and wept, and took a drink, and wept agin for joy. Verily my way is now pleasant and my paths is made strate. In the exuberance uv his joy he will keep my basket and my store—or rather my jug and flask—full for a month.

THE AMERICAN

BUTTON HOLE OVERSEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE CO.

In directing attention to their CELEBRATED COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE & SEWING MACHINE, beg leave to refer to its wonderful popularity as conclusive proof of its great merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

This grand and surprising success is unprecedented in the history of sewing-machines; and we feel fully warranted in claiming that

IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING ABSOLUTELY THE BEST

FAMILY MACHINE

IN THE WORLD,

And Intrinsically the Cheapest.

It is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement,) making both the Shuttle or Lock-stitch, and the Overseaming and Button hole stitch, with equal facility and perfection. It executes in the very best manner every variety of Sewing, such as, Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Stitching, Braiding and Quilting, Gathering and Sewing on, (done at the same time,) and in addition, Overseams, Embroiders on the edge, and makes beautiful Button and Eyelet Holes in all fabrics.

Every Machine is warranted by the Company, or its Agents, to give entire satisfaction.

Circulars with full particulars and samples of work done on this Machine, can be had on application at the Salesrooms of the Company.

J. H. SHIREMAN'S REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have baught and used these machines:

Michael Fiscel, Stephen Gettier,
Moses Hartman, Mr. Sterner,
Joseph Wierman, Mr. Lian,
Ulrich Jacobs, J. R. Hershey
Jacob Hartman, B. B. Woodburn.
Jacob Laman,

with others, too numerous to mention.

This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

THE GREAT

Conowago Phosphate.

PREPARED BY
C. W. BENSON, M. D.,
LITTLESTOWN, PA.

THE Conowago Phosphate is destined to ... the head of American Fertilisers. It ... and at proved its SUPERIOR QUALITIES ... certificates of its high merits ... has already the public. The propr... , and ample pains to make ... will soon be furnished to is superior ... ...etors will spare no means o... LA... ...a reliable and uniform article. It ... to Peruvian Guano, because it is MORE ...SING IN ITS EFFECT and EQUAL TO IT ON THE FIRST CROP. It does not over-stimulate the soil, as most of the fertilisers in the market do, and leave the land after gathering the first crop in a worse condition than before using it, but it remains an active fertiliser in the soil, and continues year after year to show itself on every crop that is put in the land.

The Conowago Phosphate contains a large percentage of Ammonia and Phosphoric acid, which are essential elements to vegetable food. They either enter directly into the plant or prepare the alkalies in the soil to do so. The base of the Conowago Phosphate is PURE RAW BONE, completely and thoroughly dissolved without the use of any volatile agent.

One of the great advantages of the Conowago Phosphate is that it will dissolve the sand in the soil and set the silica free to be absorbed by the growing plant, which is a very important ingredient in giving firmness and strength to the stalk and grain.—It will prevent the falling and lodging of crops that are forced up by a wet and warm season, and will greatly facilitate the ripening of the grain and secure it against the rust.

Agencies are being established throughout the country wherever fertilizers are sold. We are not afraid to place it beside the best in the country.

Let all the farmers and planters make up their minds that they will try the Great Conowago Phosphate this fall.

Price fifty Dollars per ton.

BENSON & MAUS, Proprietors.

The Conowago Phosphate being made very fine, and thoroughly distintegrated, makes it convenient to use in the drills, and mixes more freely with the soil. All farmers know the advantage of fine fertilizers. June 17, 1868.—tf

GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING

GRAIN SEPARATOR,

CLEANER AND BAGGER,

With the latest improved Triple-geared Horse Power, either Gear or Belt.

This machine has successfully competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator ever produced; in fact, the only Separator and Cleaner ever before the public to give general satisfaction.

The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and threshing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble on a barn floor as a common thresher and shaker ... It is simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact and cleanly to work by while in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation of farmers that are using them we must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want.

The following are a few of the persons who have used this machine, well known, and to whom the public are referred for further information:

Wm. J. Peters, Flora Dale, Adams co., Penna.
Wm. Kohler, near New Oxford " "
John D. Pfoutz, " Gettysburg " "
Henry Harbold, York Springs, " "
Daniel Peters, Bendersville, " "

Orders will be received by either of these gentlemen, as also by Robert and Hoover, East Berlin, Pa.—For further information address

THE EAGLE LIVERY, SALE & EXCHANGE STABLES.

Washington Street, Gettysburg, Pa.

ADJOINING THE EAGLE HOTEL.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the public that he has opened a new LIVERY, SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLE in this place, and is prepared to offer superior accommodations in this line. He has provided himself with Buggies, Carriages, Hacks, Light Wagons, &c., of the latest styles, sufficient to meet the public demand. His horses are all good, without spot or blemish, and perfectly reliable—none of your "old cripples," but all of the "2.40" order.

Riding parties can always be accommodated and comfortable equipments furnished.

Parties, large or small, can get just what they want on the most accommodating terms.

Visitors to the Battle-field politely attended to, and reliable drivers furnished if desired.

Parties conveyed to and from the Depot upon the arrival and departure of every train.

Horses bought, sold, or exchanged, and always a chance for bargains given. Our motto is "fair play and no gouging."

Particular attention paid to furnishing Vehicles and Hacks for Funerals.

We flatter ourselves that by charging moderately and by furnishing superior accommodations, we cannot fail to please every one who patronizes our establishment. T. T. TATE.

A SERVANT FOR ALL.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates,

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the sagging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the Right for Adams county, will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE—which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain by their team, open, close and latch a gate, without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.
